

Interview guide

This guide is used at interviews with key persons from different branches. The interviews are carried out every three-month in a personal meeting between the interview person, who often is a manager in an important enterprise in the area and a head from the public employment service.

Questions	Answers
How is the situation concerning employment within the next three to six month and in a longer perspective one to two years?
Are there signs of bottleneck problems in certain professions? If this is the case – what has caused the problems?
Which kinds of educations and general qualifications do you expect the manpower to have?
Which structural developments do the branch expect within the next years?
Other issues	